

FilmFestival
August 5th-10th, 2014

REGULATIONS 2014

1. Objectives

MoliseCinema is a film festival whose main aim is to claim “the right to enjoy Cinema” in the small towns, through the promotion of the latest and most innovative works of Italian and international cinema. A special attention is given to young Italian, European and international filmmakers, to innovative projects and new ways of expression, and to films dealing with the themes of cross-cultural interactions between peoples, cultural and social identity in a community and life in small villages.

2. Schedule

12° edition of MoliseCinema will take place from 5th to 10th August 2014.

3. Sections

The festival is divided into the following sections:

- a) Villages in short. Carlo Montuori Award: international shortfilm competition
- b) Routes: national shortfilm competition (Italian productions)
- c) Frontiers: international documentary competition
- d) Villages in feature films: Italian and international feature films. First and second productions
- e) Filming Molise: authors’ archives and films dealing with the region of Molise
- f) Special events: concerts, readings, shows, retrospectives
- g) MoliseCinema Tour: a selection of films presented at the festival will be screened in other towns of Molise.

4. Prizes and juries

The winners of the competitions will also receive the “K” prize of MoliseCinema, a sculpture by the artist Baldo Diodato.

5. Selection

The Board of directors of MoliseCinema is in charge of the preselection of the shortfilms, documentaries and feature films submitted for the sections “Villages in short”, “Routes”, “Frontiers” and “Villages in feature films”. Selected works will be screened during the Festival. The decision of the Board of directors is unquestionable and final. The board of directors of MoliseCinema will also select the works and the film-makers accepted as participant in the other sections of the festival.

6. Eligibility requirements

a) Are accepted as a participant to the competitive sections “Villages in short” and “Routes” works shot both in film or digital format. The length may not exceed 25 minutes. Films must have been completed after the 1st of January 2013. The board of directors of MoliseCinema reserves the right to accept entries to the competitive sections that do not comply with the above mentioned criterias as for theme, duration or year of production. The board may also decide to create competitive subsections dedicated to particular genres or authors. The world or international premiere at MoliseCinema will be a priority for the pre-selection after evaluation of the Board.

b) During the selection process of the shortfilms submitted for the sections “Villages in short” and “Routes” a special consideration will be given to the works inspired to, or connected with the following themes: life in small villages; comparison or relationship between the town and the rural areas, sustainable development, identity of ethnic groups or of a community, generational comparison, emigration and immigration.

c) Are eligible to participate to the competitive section “Frontiers” all works of the documentary genre. The board of directors of MoliseCinema will take in a special consideration works inspired to, or connected to the themes of: the border, both as material and a symbolic entity, and the relationship between people and culture.

Films must have been completed after the 1st of January 2013.

d) The section “Villages in feature films” is dedicated to feature films by authors who have made

However, the on-line entries are not complete or considered valid, until the receipt of the DVD copy of the film. Information contained in the entry form will be included in the Festival's catalogue and other publications related to the Festival.

It's also possible to submit and send the film to the preselection trough the service FilmFlynet, accessible from www.molisecinema.it . In this case, the film must be on digital support and there's no need to send to the preselection an additional copy in DVD.

The film-makers presenting non-Italian language films must send a DVD copy of the film with Italian or English subtitles or a dialogue list in Italian, English, French or Spanish.

f) Entry form and DVD must be sent exclusively to the following address:

FESTIVAL MOLISECINEMA 2014

Piazza Nardacchione, snc

Casacalenda (Campobasso), Italia, Cap: 86043.

For further information please:

Call: +393383826150; +393497702770. E-mail: info@molisecinema.it

g) Authors of the selected films have to send, as soon as possible, at least 3 color photos, minimum size 13x18 cm. if hard copy or .jpeg/.tif files with a resolution of 300 dpi if in digital format. The photos will be used for promotional purposes and published in the catalogue. The publishing is understood to be authorized and free of charge. Authors will be requested to send a 35mm/16mm film or master Betacam or a dvd HD copy of the the selected works.

h) The list of works selected for the 12th edition will be published on the website www.molisecinema.it on July 20th 2014. Not-selected works will NOT receive any notification.

7. Deadlines

Entry form and DVD copies: 18th May 2014.

8. Screenings

Festival and informational booklets on the works selected for screening.

d) The DVD copy of the films screened at MoliseCinema will not be given back. The director, or whoever holds the rights, agree to leave the copy in the archives of MoliseCinema in order to be filed and made available for study and for screening in other festivals. The archives will be kept in a dedicated storage unit.

9. General Rules

a) MoliseCinema is free, there is no entry fee. It doesn't require any registration fee except for the cost of shipping service or the upload on the chosen databases.

b) Works excluded from previous editions of the Festival will not be taken into account. The Board of directors may, however, reserve the right to consider again a work previously received but not selected in any past editions of the Festival.

c) The shipping costs of the DVDs sent for the pre-selection must be paid by the sender. The entry materials of the rejected works will not be given back.

d) The delivery costs of the films selected for screening at MoliseCinema will be paid by the sender (delivery) and by the Festival (returning).

e) Unless otherwise agreed, screening copies of the selected films from non-EU-member countries must be sent by courier service and carry the declaration "No commercial value. Cultural purposes only"

f) Submission of an entry to MoliseCinema implies recognition and acceptance without reservation of these regulations. Films accepted, already confirmed for screening and included in the program cannot be withdrawn from the Festival.

f) The Board of directors of MoliseCinema will be able to decide on issues or matters which have not been mentioned in these regulations. Disputes or discrepancies regarding the meaning of any of the above regulations lie within the jurisdiction of the Foro di Campobasso, referring to the Italian version of the present regulations.