- f) Country Focus;
- g) Special events: special screenings, concerts, books presentations and readings, shows, retrospectives, workshops;

h) MoliseCinema Tour: screenings of a selection of films in other towns of Molise.

4. Juries and Awards

For the competitive section, a jury of Italian and international experts appointed by the Board of MoliseCinema shall view the films in the official selection and award prizes with relevant citations. The juries may decide to give special mentions. Audience awards will also be voted on. Awards categories are as follows:

Paesi in corto: Best international short film award;

Percorsi: Best Italian short film award;

Frontiere: Best Italian documentary film award (named after Giuseppe Folchi);

Paesi in lungo: Best feature film award.

Prizes awarded by the jury shall include money rewards. All competition winners shall receive MoliseCinema K Prize, a sculptural piece by contemporary artist Baldo Diodato.

5. Selection process

The selection of short films, documentary films and feature films in the competitive sections shall be responsibility of the Board of MoliseCinema at its sole discretion. The Board of MoliseCinema shall also select films/works and film-makers/artists for the remaining sections of the Festival.

The official selection of the 19th Festival shall be published on the Festival website (www.molisecinema.it) by 25 July 2021. Film-makers of selected films shall be notified via email at the addresses provided in the entry form. If a film is not selected no notification shall be sent.

6. Terms and conditions of submission

a) Competitive section Paesi in corto (international short films): Films of all genres that do not exceed 20 minutes and were completed after 1st January, 2020 are eligible for submission. The films screenings shall be Italian premieres except for special cases decided upon by the Board of MoliseCinema. Priority in the selection will be given to films having their world, international or European premiere at MoliseCinema Festival.

b) Competitive section Percorsi (Italian short films): Films of all genres that do not exceed 20 minutes and were completed after 1st January, 2020, are eligible for submission. Priority in the selection will be given to films having their world, international, European or Italian premiere at MoliseCinema Film Festival.

c) Competitive section Frontiere: Italian films in the documentary form completed after 1st January 2020 are eligible for submission. In the selection process special consideration will be given to films dealing with the notion of border, either in a material or symbolic sense, and the topic of relations between peoples and cultures.

d) Competitive section Paesi in lungo: Directors' first or second fictional feature films completed after 1st January 2020 are eligible for submission. For films in a language other than Italian a screening copy of the film with Italian subtitles and/or a dialogue list in Italian is required.

e) The Board of MoliseCinema reserves the right to accept entries to the competitive sections that do not meet the above criteria as for theme, duration and year of production. The Board may decide to establish competitive subsections for specific genres, themes and authors.

f) The entry form can be found either on the Festival page of Shortfilmdepot online platform or on MoliseCinema website at www.molisecinema.it. The form must be filled in and sent not later than 15 May 2021. A submission is deemed finalized only when the video content is uploaded on the platform or, if the website entry form is used, when the link and password, if any, to view the film online are provided or the viewing material is shipped by post/courier. The date of online uploading or the postmark date of shipment of the film viewing material shall be considered as proof.

If a film is submitted and uploaded on the online platform, completion of the entry form on the website is not required.

Information contained in the entry form will be used for the Festival catalogue and other printed material related to the Festival.

g) Film-makers submitting films in a language other than Italian must send a copy of the film with Italian or English subtitles and a dialogue list, either in Italian, English, French, or Spanish.
